Article 2

Subjective requirements for participation in the selection procedure

1. The selection procedure is open to:
 - a. candidates who have obtained a national qualification in accordance with Article 16 of Law no. 240/2010 for the subject area of the competition included in the subject group to which the call for applications refers and for the functions to which the procedure refers, or for higher functions provided they do not already perform those higher functions;
 - b. candidates who are eligible pursuant to Law no. 210/1998 for the category to which the call for applications refers, solely for the period of eligibility;
 - c. professors already employed by a different University in the category to which the call for applications refers;
 - d. academics with permanent employment abroad, performing research or teaching activities at the university level in positions that are equivalent to those to which the call for applications refers, as determined by reference to the tables of equivalence issued by the Italian Ministry of University and Research (hereinafter referred to as the MUR) in Ministerial Decree no. 456 dated 10 May 2023. The University may obtain the opinion of the MUR on the equivalence between the role declared by the candidate and the Italian academic positions. The MUR shall express an opinion within 60 days of the University's request. In cases where the opinion of the MUR needs to be obtained, the candidate shall be admitted to the procedure on a conditional basis.
2. Applicants who, at the time of submitting their application, are consanguineal relatives or are relatives through marriage up to and including the fourth degree with a professor of the Department that seeks to fill a vacancy or of the entity making the call or with the Rector, the Director General or a member of the Board of Governors of the University, may not take part in the selection.
3. The candidate must meet the admission requirements provided for by this article by the deadline for submitting applications to the selection procedure. Any subsequent changes affecting the requirements for participation must be notified promptly to the Ufficio Concorsi Docenti office.
4. Candidates are accepted on a provisional basis. By reasoned decision, the Rector may exclude applicants from the procedure at any time for failing to meet the relevant admission requirements.

Article 3 Online application

1. Applications to participate in the selection, together with the qualifications held and the documents and publications considered useful for the procedure, must be submitted online, under penalty of exclusion, using the dedicated IT application available at the following link:

<https://pica.cineca.it/unibo/>

2. This is the only valid method to submit applications and the documents considered useful for participating in the selection procedure.
3. Participation in the selection is only possible after self registration with the system using an email account, which does not need to be a certified email account.
4. The candidate must enter all the information required to prepare the application and attach the related documents in electronic PDF format. The application form must be completed in full, as specified by the online procedure.
5. The online application allows the documents in draft mode to be saved up until the deadline for submitting the application. The “draft” status does not indicate submission of the application. In order to confirm that they wish to proceed with the application, candidates must ensure that the status of their application is “submitted”. Therefore, only applications showing the “submitted” status by the relevant deadline will be considered for the purpose of participating in the procedure and consequently sent to the Committee to be evaluated. The date of online submission of the application is certified by the IT system, which issues a receipt that is sent automatically to the candidate via email upon submission of the application.
6. After completing the application and uploading all the relevant attachments, the candidate must ensure that they click on “submit”. Completion of the application process will be indicated by the change in the application status, which will switch from “draft” to “submitted”. Upon completion of the application process, the candidate will receive an automatic email confirming submission of their application.
7. After the deadline for submitting the application, the system will no longer allow the electronic form to be accessed or submitted.

8. The application must be prepared and submitted online by and no later than 11.59 p.m., Italian time, on the thirtieth day following that of publication of the call for applications in the Italian Official Gazette – IV special series – Competitions and exams. Each application will be assigned an identification number that, together with the competition code indicated by the IT application, must be specified in all subsequent communications.
9. Users can access the University of Bologna website (<https://bandi.unibo.it/docenti/procedure-chiamata-professori>) to consult a brief “Practical guide for completing the application on the PICA platform”.

Article 4

Declarations required for participation in the procedure

1. Candidates, aware of the criminal penalties for making false declarations or preparing or using false documents, as referred to in Article 76 of Presidential Decree no. 445 dated 28 December 2000, must indicate and/or provide the following in their applications:
 - Department, Subject Group and Subject Area for which they apply;
 - Declaration regarding the processing of their personal data and authorisation to use said data;
 - Their personal identification and contact details;
 - Their qualifications as needed to participate in the selection;
 - Declarations regarding their enjoyment of civil and political rights in their home country, and regarding any criminal convictions and/or pending criminal trials or proceedings;
 - Declaration regarding any consanguineal relationships or relatives acquired through marriage up to and including the fourth degree with a professor of the Department that seeks to fill a vacancy or of the entity making the call or with the Rector, the Director General or a member of the Board of Governors of the University;
 - Their agreement to notify the Ufficio Concorsi Docenti office about any subsequent changes with regard to meeting the requirements for participation in the procedure;
 - Declaration of status regarding military obligations (only for male Italian citizens);
 - Declaration regarding any removal or dismissal from employment with a Public Administration for persistent poor performance, or declaration that they have never been dismissed from public employment pursuant to Article 127(1)(d) of the Consolidated Act governing the Statute of Civil State Employees, approved by Presidential Decree no. 3 dated 10 January 1957, or that they have never been dismissed for disciplinary reasons, including those specified in Article 21 of Legislative Decree no. 29/1993;
 - Declaration regarding their knowledge of the Italian language;
 - Declaration regarding any periods of involuntary suspension from research activities, with particular reference to the performance of parental duties;

- Declaration accepting the methods of disclosure and publication of the documents related to the procedure.

2. The following must be attached to the application to participate in the procedure:

- a) Photocopy of a valid ID document;
- b) Curriculum vitae (in Italian or English) indicating the candidate's experience in teaching and scientific research. The curriculum vitae, duly signed and dated, must contain a declaration in lieu of certification, pursuant to Articles 46 and 47 of Presidential Decree no. 445/2000, confirming possession of all the qualifications indicated therein. The University has prepared a CV template to facilitate evaluation by the Committee, which is available on the University website (<https://bandi.unibo.it/docenti/procedure-chiamata-professori>) together with this call for applications;
- c) Publications in PDF format that the candidate wishes to submit to the Committee for detailed evaluation. The Committee will only assess publications that have been correctly attached by uploading them either via LoginMiur or manually in PDF format.

Article 5 Eligible publications

1. The scientific publications that candidates wish to use for selection purposes must be submitted by uploading them via LoginMiur or manually in PDF format, using exclusively the dedicated IT application available at the following link:
<https://pica.cineca.it/unibo/>
2. The evaluation will consider papers and texts accepted for publication in accordance with current regulations, as well as essays included in collections and articles published in printed or digital journals, with the exclusion of internal notes and departmental reports. The texts and articles accepted for publication by the deadline for the call for applications must be submitted together with the related acceptance letter from the publisher.
3. For publications printed abroad, the date and place of publication or, alternatively, the ISBN code or another equivalent code must be indicated. Publications must be submitted in Italian or in English, unless otherwise indicated in the relevant job description. With regard to selection procedures for language areas, publications may be submitted in the language or in any of the languages to which the procedure refers.
4. Publications in languages other than those provided for by the call for applications will only be considered if accompanied by an official translation certificate issued pursuant to the provisions in force. In this case, publications must be translated into Italian and the translation must be certified by the competent diplomatic or consular authority or by an official translator.

5. Publications will be processed by the Committee solely in the context of this selection procedure.

Article 6

Withdrawal of candidates from the selection procedure

1. Candidates may withdraw from the selection procedure by sending an email to the Ufficio Concorsi Docenti office at the email address apos.concorsidocenti@unibo.it, attaching a signed declaration in PDF format and a photocopy of a valid ID document.

Article 7

Selection Committees and procedures

1. The Committee is appointed pursuant to the provisions of Articles 8 and 8-bis of the Regulations governing the call for full and associate professors. The work of the Committee is completed within three months of appointment by the Rector.
2. The Committee appoints a Chair and a Secretary, who takes the minutes, from among its members. It conducts its work in the presence of all its members and passes resolutions by an absolute majority of its members. The Committee may use online systems to hold meetings.
3. The Committee identifies up to three suitable candidates after giving a collective opinion on each candidate based on the evaluation of the standards provided for by the Regulations and the call for applications. If more than one post is available, the above-said limits are multiplied by the number of posts.
4. The Rector may postpone the deadline to complete the procedure by reasoned decision at the request of the Chair of the Committee, only one time and by up to one month. If the documents related to the procedure are not delivered by the deadline for completion, the Rector will dissolve the Committee and appoint a new one to replace it.

Article 8

End of the procedure – Call of suitable candidates

1. The selection procedure documents are approved by Rector's Decree within thirty days of their submission to the relevant offices by the Selection Committee.

2. Following the comparative procedure carried out by the Committee, within two months of the approval of the documents, the Department Board will recommend to the Board of Governors one of the candidates that the Committee has identified as suitable.
3. For the purpose of being called, the suitable candidate(s) identified by the Committee will be asked to conduct a seminar before the Department Board concerning the general activity carried out and its expected evolution.
4. The Department's resolution, taking account of the outcomes of the assessment carried out by the Evaluation Committee, is based on the scientific and teaching activities of the candidate(s) and the aspects noted during the seminar, also in light of the consistency of the candidate's curriculum vitae with the teaching and scientific activities outlined in the call for applications.
5. The Decree approving the documents and the Committee's minutes are published on the University website at the following page: <https://bandi.unibo.it/docenti/procedure-chiamata-professori>.

Article 9

Processing of personal data

1. The personal data of candidates will be processed solely in accordance with current laws and for purposes strictly connected to and useful for managing the selection procedure.

Article 10

Relevant regulations

1. For all matters not governed by this call for applications, reference is made to the University Regulations governing the call for full and associate professors pursuant to Articles 18 and 24(5) and (6) of Law no. 240/2010, as amended, issued by Rector's Decree no. 977 of 09/12/2013 – available at: <https://normateneo.unibo.it/>
