The Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE) as a model for multilateral regional diplomacy of the 21st century

March-May 2024

OSCE – the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe – is the world’s largest regional security organization, comprising 57 participating States in North America, Europe and Asia. OSCE is a forum for political dialogue on a wide range of security issues and a platform for joint action to improve the lives of individuals and communities. The organization uses a comprehensive approach to security that encompasses the politico-military, economic and environmental, and human dimensions.

Alongside nine Italian Universities and in collaboration with ISPI and IAI, the Italian Permanent Mission to the OSCE has organized the II edition of a workshop dedicated to exploring the work of the Organization and the Department of Political and Social Sciences of UNIBO is launching a Call for Interest to engage students in joining the workshop.

The workshop aims to foster a better comprehension of certain aspects and tools of multilateral diplomacy, in relation to the work of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe. The final goal is to promote and develop participants’ critical capacities through the analysis of concrete and current issues affecting the OSCE area.

At the end of the workshop, students should have acquired the necessary knowledge and instruments to enable them to:

- recognize and understand the main features of regional multilateral diplomacy, in particular in the OSCE context;
- evaluate and analyze the different instruments and strategies approaches as envisaged and implemented within the OSCE;
- identify and assess the OSCE strengths and shortcomings in the domain of international relations and regional geopolitics.

B) Programme

C) Educational methods

The workshop will start on March 5th, 2024 until – indicatively – the end of May 2024. Lectures will be held on selected Tuesdays in the afternoon (usually, 5.30-7pm). The workshop is divided into 10 sessions of 2 hours each (1h of lecture and 1h of case study - in both cases including Q&A) and is based on an interactive teaching approach. All seminars will be in English.

Each Session will be held on an online platform (ZOOM). No recordings will be available. The attendance for the whole seminar cycle shall be compulsory and the presence will be verified from time to time.

D) Benefits

At the end of the workshop, each student will be able to receive a formal certificate of participation issued by the Italian Permanent Mission to the OSCE validated by UNIBO and the recognition of 4 formative credits (SSD IUS/13) upon request to be attributed to the Group of Elective Courses TAF D as extra credits. The grant of the credits will be subjected to the elaboration and positive evaluation of an essay critically discussing one of the topics of the course.
