

INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL LAW	IUS/05	At the end of the course students are able to understand the international contracts and the principles regulating them. In particular, they are able to examine the International Commercial Contracts of the typical distribution sector, also according to the contractual and corporate antitrust law and joint venture agreements, with the aim to the internationalization of the company; they are also able to focus on different solutions for different situations.
DIRITTO COMMERCIALE	IUS/04	Al termine del corso lo studente conosce la disciplina del diritto dell'impresa e delle società, con particolare riferimento ai diversi modelli. Conosce inoltre: - la disciplina dell'impresa e dei segni distintivi; - la disciplina delle società di persone e di capitali; - la disciplina delle società cooperative; - i titoli di credito e i servizi di pagamento nella loro più recente evoluzione in forma digitale ed elettronica.
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW AND EU MARKET LEGISLATION - 1	IUS/10	At the end of this course, students will gain expertise in public administration, understanding its main activities and principles, and become familiar with administrative actions and various types of public contracts. A specific emphasis is placed on studying and applying institutions in the tourism and urban sectors, acknowledging their close ties to local communities. An integrated approach is pursued, involving governance and administration and thus connecting diverse public and private interests. In the second part of the course, students will acquire general knowledge of EU legislation, providing fundamental guidelines for analyzing the internal market regulation. The focus will be on the free movement of people and services, as well as on European incentive schemes and state aids, with a particular attention for the implications in the context of tourism and urban services sectors.
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW AND EU MARKET LEGISLATION - 2	IUS/10
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW AND EU MARKET LEGISLATION - 3	IUS/10
PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION OF TOURISM	IUS/10	At the end of the course, the student will demonstrate knowledge of the principles of public organization of the tourism sector, of its institutions and of its bodies at the International and European level. In particular, the student will manage the main tools of public tourism legislation applying to the sectors of cultural heritage and the environment in order to promote sustainable development of the tourism sector. Moreover, the student will be able to critically evaluate the different administrative organizational models of the tourism sector at the local level.