Duration

One semester (either 1st or 2nd semester)

Schools or Departments open to exchange students

Exchange students can take Chinese language courses at the PKU School of Chinese as a Second Language and/or English-taught undergraduate courses in various Departments.

Limitations

Students who want to apply at this University have to be enrolled in the second or third year of a “Corso di Laurea” or “Corso di Laurea Magistrale a Ciclo Unico” in the academic year 2023/2024. Students who are enrolled or will enroll in a “Corso di Laurea Magistrale” or in the fourth year of a “Corso di Laurea Magistrale a Ciclo Unico” in the academic year 2023/2024 will not be allowed to apply for this University since the Peking University does not accept students enrolled in an academic year subsequent to their fourth year during their mobility period (corresponding to the a.y. 2024/2025).

Students are not allowed to attend classes held within double-degree programmes, graduate/master degree programmes, and classes held at: the Health Science Center, the School of Software and Microelectronics, Faculties with special prerequisites, Tailor-made programmes, and the Shenzhen Graduate School, English-taught graduate courses of special Master programs (MBA, Master in International Relations, Master in Public Policy, LLM in Chinese Law, Yenching Academy) and Educational Department. Master’s courses in Chinese are available under faculty’s approval.

Language requirements

A basic knowledge of the Chinese language, 500 words and linguistic elements in order to be able to communicate effectively both through writing and through speaking in simple, daily life situations, is required. Proof of this knowledge can be provided either through an HSK language certificate of (minimum) level 2 or by sitting a language test at the university’s language centre CLA. The dates in which students can sit the Chinese language test at the language centre will be published on the web page www.unibo.it/en/overseas. Alternatively, applicants may provide a level 2 HSK certificate. Chinese-taught courses are open to exchange students as well, but an HSK language certificate of level 6 with an overall score of at least 70 for each item is required.

Only the selected applicants, if interested in attending English-taught courses, must provide either a TOEFL iBT language certificate with an overall score of at least 75 or an IELTS (Academic) language certificate with an overall score of at least 6 during the application procedure for the host university. Cambridge (First, Advanced or Proficiency) certificates with an overall score of 160 are accepted too.

Duration

One semester (either 1st or 2nd semester)

Schools or Departments open to exchange students

There are two different programs available for exchange students: Center for Global Education/CGE (which offers English taught courses on Japanese culture and society) or Center for Japanese Language and Culture/CJLC (intensive program of Japanese culture and language, in which all courses are taught in Japanese). Exchange students need to check which center they would like to join and choose one out of the two.

CGE program offers undergraduate courses in “Humanities”, “Social Sciences” e “Natural and Human Sciences”. Students who want to join CGE program are also allowed to enroll in elementary Japanese language course (max 3 local credits per semester).

In some case CJLC students who earn excellent score on “Japanese Placement Test” will be allowed to attend some regular undergraduate programs at Doshisha University (Students can sit the Placement Test after their arrival at Doshisha).

(The two programs offered by this Institution are being reorganized, as well as the webpage related to the courses, the CGE program from March 2024 will be named GEM and the CJLC program will instead be named Nichibun).

Language requirements

All the students who want to apply for this University are required to have studied Japanese for at least one year.

A basic knowledge of the Japanese language is required. Proof of this knowledge can be provided either through an JLPT N5 language certificate or by sitting a language test at the university’s Language Centre CLA. The dates in which students can sit the Japanese language test at the Language Centre will be published on the web page www.unibo.it/en/overseas.

A TOEFL iBT language certificate with an overall score of at least 72 or an IELTS (Academic) language certificate with an overall score of at least 5.5 is also required. Cambridge (First, Advanced or Proficiency) certificates with an overall score of 160 are accepted too.

Duration

One semester (either 1st or 2nd semester)

Schools or Departments open to exchange students

Exchange students can study Asian and Japanese languages and cultures (Asian Studies Program). This program offers also some general courses of Arts and Science, Business Administration and Studio Art Courses: all these courses put the focus on Japan and Asian Area and they are taught in English.

Kansai Gaidai University offers only undergraduate level undergraduate courses.

Limitations

Students who want to apply at this University have to be enrolled in the second or third year of a “Corso di Laurea” or “Corso di Laurea Magistrale a Ciclo Unico” in the academic year 2023/2024. Students who are enrolled or will enroll in a “Corso di Laurea Magistrale” or in the fourth year of a “Corso di Laurea Magistrale a Ciclo Unico” in the academic year 2023/2024 will not be allowed to apply for this University since the Kansai Gaidai University does not accept students enrolled in an academic year subsequent to their fourth year during their mobility period (corresponding to the a.y. 2024/2025).

Applicants are required to have an average grade higher than or equal to 27/30. Applicants to the Overseas Call for Applications are not required to have already satisfied this requisite at the moment of their application, but selected students will have to fulfill this requisite when sending their application to the Kansai Gaidai University (February for students who want to leave at the beginning of the academic year, September for students who want to leave in the second half of the academic year).

Language requirements

A basic knowledge of the Japanese language is required. Proof of this knowledge can be provided either through an JLPT N5 language certificate or by sitting a language test at the university’s Language Centre CLA. The dates in which students can sit the Japanese language test at the Language Centre will be published on the web page www.unibo.it/en/overseas.

Furthermore a TOEFL iBT language certificate with an overall score of at least 80 is required from all the students applying. Cambridge (First, Advanced or Proficiency) certificates with an overall score of 160 are accepted too.
