4

Duration

One semester (either 1st or 2nd semester)

Schools or Departments open to exchange students

Exchange students can take Chinese language courses at the PKU School of Chinese as a Second Language and/or English-taught undergraduate courses in various Departments.

Limitations

Students who want to apply at this University have to be enrolled in the second or third year of a “Corso di Laurea” or “Corso di Laurea Magistrale a Ciclo Unico” in the academic year 2025/2026. Students who are enrolled or will enroll in a “Corso di Laurea Magistrale” or in the fourth year of a “Corso di Laurea Magistrale a Ciclo Unico” in the academic year 2025/2026 will not be allowed to apply for this University since the Peking University does not accept students enrolled in an academic year subsequent to their fourth year during their mobility period (corresponding to the a.y. 2026/2027).

Students are not allowed to attend classes held within double-degree programmes, graduate/master degree programmes, and classes held at: the Health Science Center, the School of Software and Microelectronics, Faculties with special prerequisites, Tailor-made programmes, and the Shenzhen Graduate School, English-taught graduate courses of special Master programs (MBA, Master in International Relations, Master in Public Policy, LLM in Chinese Law, Yenching Academy) and Educational Department. Master's courses in Chinese are available under faculty's approval.

Language requirements

A basic knowledge of the Chinese language, 500 words and linguistic elements in order to be able to communicate effectively both through writing and through speaking in simple, daily life situations, is required. Proof of this knowledge can be provided either through an HSK language certificate of (minimum) level 2 or by sitting a language test at the university's language centre CLA. The dates in which students can sit the Chinese language test at the language centre will be published on the web page www.unibo.it/en/overseas. Alternatively, applicants may provide a level 2 HSK certificate. Chinese-taught courses are open to exchange students as well, but an HSK language certificate of level 6 with an overall score of at least 70 for each item is required.

Only the selected applicants, if interested in attending English-taught courses, must provide either a TOEFL iBT language certificate with an overall score of at least 75 or an IELTS (Academic) language certificate with an overall score of at least 6 during the application procedure for the host university. Cambridge (First, Advanced or Proficiency) certificates with an overall score of 160 are accepted too.

Duration

One semester (either 1st or 2nd semester)

Schools or Departments open to exchange students

Exchange students can take courses at: Aoyama Campus (Shibuya, Tokyo) and Sagamihara Campus (Fuchinobe, Kanagawa).

Both, Laurea and Laurea Magistrale students, can attend English taught courses at undergraduate level (years 1-4) in both campuses. Students should choose one of the two campuses according to their department.

At Aoyama Campus, both Laurea and Laurea Magistrale students can only take undergraduate courses at the Departments of: Literature, Education, Psychology & Human Studies*, Economics*, Law*, Business, International Politics, Economics & Communication, Cultural and Creative Studies and MBA* (Aoyama Business School).

At Sagamihara Campus students can take undergraduate courses at the Departments and School of: Science & Engineering and Schools of Informatics and Global Studies and Collaboration (Japan Studies Program) and Community Studies*.

Limitations

All the graduate courses are not open to exchange students; Graduate School of Professional Accountancy courses, Physical Education, Teacher's Certificate courses, Community Studies and courses which are full with regular degree seeking students are not open to exchange students, Foreign Language courses are for Japanese students and also some courses of Education are restricted for exchange students. Departments marked with an asterisk also offer English taught courses, but mainly in Japanese language. Before choosing a program, it is therefore recommended to check the language of instruction for the courses.

Applicants are required to have an average grade higher than or equal to 25. Applicants to the Overseas Call for Applications are not required to have already satisfied this requisite at the moment of their application, but selected students will have to fulfill this requisite when sending their nomination to the Aoyama Gakuin University (Mid-February for students who want to leave at the beginning of the academic year, Mid-September or students who want to leave in the second half of the academic year).

Language requirements

A TOEFL iBT language certificate with an overall score of at least 68 or an IELTS (Academic) language certificate with an overall score of at least 5.5 is required.

Schools or Departments open to exchange students

There are two different programs available for exchange students: Global Education Module/GEM (which offers English taught courses on Japanese culture and society) or Japanese Language and Culture Module/Nichibun (intensive program of Japanese culture and language, in which all courses are taught in Japanese). Exchange students need to check which center they would like to join and choose one out of the two.

GEM program offers undergraduate courses in “Humanities”, “Social Sciences” e “Natural and Human Sciences”. Students who want to join GEM program are also allowed to enroll in elementary Japanese language course (max 3 local credits per semester).

In some case Nichibun students who earn excellent score on “Japanese Placement Test” will be allowed to attend some regular undergraduate programs at Doshisha University (Students can sit the Placement Test after their arrival at Doshisha).

Language requirements

All the students who want to apply for this University are required to have studied Japanese for at least one year.

A basic knowledge of the Japanese language is required. Proof of this knowledge can be provided either through an JLPT N5 language certificate or by sitting a language test at the university’s Language Centre CLA. The dates in which students can sit the Japanese language test at the Language Centre will be published on the web page www.unibo.it/en/overseas.

A TOEFL iBT language certificate with an overall score of at least 72 or an IELTS (Academic) language certificate with an overall score of at least 5.5 is also required. Cambridge (First, Advanced or Proficiency) certificates with an overall score of 160 are accepted too.
